

EXPAND PROGRAMS

FEB.22

MUSIC

In the past months, we have been accumulating all that has been derived to create the sound of The Bridge and how it will manifest the experience of being part of our community. Our three tempo playlists bring to you the beats that will guide you to emote, reflect, and enter an arena of newer possibilities.

ART

The Bridge is grounded on its core philosophy of holistic transformation that we aim to express through art. Art is not only meant to beautify the space but to share the narratives of emerging artists harmonized with The Bridge's key concepts. Built on passion and creative freedom, the Art Space is where stories unravel and where conversations begin. Watch for more artworks to be showcased from different artists!

ARTISTS' DETAILS

DR. IMAN IBRAHIM

Dr. Iman Ibrahim from University of Sharjah explores pressing issues of excessive consumption and environmental pollution in Her pieces called "Second Life." She adds another dimension to the circular flow of life and death by giving dead trees second lives through upcycling.

FAISSAL EL MALAK

Faissal El Malak expresses the constant conversation between body and nature as well as the physical and ethereal. In this connection with the earth and the divine, what do our internal and external selves reveal?

LINA KHALED X UNTITLED CHAPTERS

Untitled Chapters, a group of Female Emirati writers collaborates with Egyptian artist Lina Khaled to plant seeds of encouragement seen through phrases dispersed around The Bridge and to give life to words through art.

MOHAMMED EL KATTAN

Mohammed El Kattan explores humans and the community. Humans in their complex entirety goes through changes internally and externally as one they go through motions of time, relationships, environment, and emotions.

MAHRA AL QUBAISI

Mahra Al Qubaisi, a visual artist, seeks to represent her inner self and existence by expressing taken-for-granted realities in her artworks. In her collection, she looks into different factors that influence our lives.

MO AL BADAWI

Mohammed Badawi's style of black and white and minimalist photography is inspired by Kurosawa and Kubrick. In his photographs, he delves into moments of time when people are lost within themselves and at their most authentic.

KUNJAL SHAH, NIYATI
GUSANI, KALPESH KHALE

Kunjali, Niyati and Kalpesh collaboratively created sculptures depicting emotional connections to art and their advocacy on sustainability. Kunjal, an artist and sculptor, incorporates creativity in innovation and sustainability. Niyati is a self-taught artist skilled in different media with her works inspired by Arab and Indian culture. Kalpesh has created several art forms and they reflect his deep interest in spirituality and culture.

MINA SAYED

Mina Sayed is an Egyptian, Dubai-based graphic and multimedia designer with a knowledge of telling stories through moving imagery. She believes that experience imagery and text through print by means of paper textures, layouts and typographic treatments create and an even deeper conversation about the work being presented.

